ROALD DAHL[®] Matilda THE MUSICAL

Based on the quirky and beloved Roald Dahl novel, Matilda the Musical is an award winning story about an extraordinary little girl with extraordinary wit, intelligence and imagination. Matilda's unloving and abusive parents fail to understand her, and Matilda finds refuge at the library and in the books she loves to read. Mrs. Phelps, the librarian, enjoys Matilda's visits and enthusiastically encourages Matilda to explore her imagination and tell a story. During her visits to the library, Matilda delights Mrs. Phelps by telling her stories about a beautiful acrobat and her adoring husband, the escapologist.

Unfortunately, life for Matilda is no better at school, where the students face a tyrannical and cruel headmistress, Miss Trunchbull. "The Trunchbull" is a former Olympic Champion in Hammer-Throwing who firmly believes in the school motto: "Bambinatum est Magitum," or "Children are Maggots." She enforces excessive practices of ruling with draconian discipline in order to 'break' the school children into submission.

At school, Matilda finds companionship in her classmates and in her kind teacher, Miss Jennifer Honey. Miss Honey is a loving and well-intended teacher, but she is fragile and unable to stand up to the evil headmistress.

Small, but mighty, Matilda knows she has to stand up against the adults in her world, and in doing so she discovers her own remarkable strength and powers. Throughout the story, Matilda's bravery to stand up for herself and others inspires Miss Honey and her classmates. She shows that even if you are little, you CAN do a lot—even if sometimes you have to be a little naughty!

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTION TEAM:

Small But Mighty!

Welcome to the Smart's Mill Middle School auditorium for the return of live Musical Theater! We are so glad that you are here, and we're thrilled to be back doing our part to bring performing arts to this stage. The past two years have been challenging and we hope these past few months have offered the cast and crew the opportunity to grow in new experiences and to develop a renewed sense of camaraderie and of belonging.

During tough times, it is often the littlest among us who are the strongest and the most resilient. It is they who are empowered and emboldened to stand up and 'put it right' when things are not right. Matilda is a small but mighty force who stands up for herself and her friends throughout the show. In many ways, this cast and crew are much like the small but mighty Matilda – enduring adversity in the world around them, returning to school to many new faces and plenty of discord, and yet having the courage to adapt, persevere and lift each other up day after day. This quirky and beautiful story, and the way in which it has taken life on the SMMS stage, is truly a testament to Matilda's mantra:

"Even if you're little, you can do a lot!"

A note to our SMMS Matilda 2020 Alumni:

In March 2020, SMMS's production of Matilda the Musical was preparing for opening night when all activities around the globe unexpectedly went QUIET. It was a strange sort of quiet that should have lasted only a moment, but seemed to go on endlessly. Days, weeks, months passed before Matilda 2020 went from postponed to canceled. It was heartbreaking to walk away from something you'd worked so hard for.

We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the amazing talent, dedication and resilience of the now high schoolers who made up the 2020 Matilda cast and crew. Your finished product never got the audience it deserved. I am sure you would have delighted your family and friends, just as you did all of us time and time again in rehearsal. We are very proud of each of you and we hope that the memories and friendships you made on the SMMS stage will remain with you for a lifetime!

Praise and Encouragement

To the cast and crew -- BRAVO! Your hard work and dedication to this show have paid off! Keep singing and dancing all through life .. on and off the stage!

SMMS Musical WHO? WHAT? WHY?

Are you sitting in the audience relaxing, checking texts and want to know more about this amazing production?

Well, here are a few answers to all things Smart's Mill Musicals!

WHO staffs the musicals? There are no drama classes taught at SMMS, so the production team is made up of an amazingly dedicated and talented team of VOLUNTEERS (that's right it's worthy of being big and bold) - most of whom haven't had a child in the musical for many years!

WHO is Mill House Productions? A non-profit 501(c)3, created in 2017, to support SMMS musicals and to help raise funds with local businesses. All funds raised go directly to support the musical.

WHAT is a Swag Bag? Each member of the cast and crew has their own labeled bag that is just waiting to be filled with fun stuff from you. Visit the swag bag table during intermission and/or after the show.

WHAT are Bios? Bios are a mini biography that each student writes to share a little about themselves with the audience.

WHAT is Premium Seating? In recent years, Mill House Productions added the option to reserve seats (that's right, no more waiting in line an hour before the performance). Premium Seating is located in the front, center of the auditorium.

WHAT is the Hammer Throw? Ms. Trunchbull participated in the Olympic Hammer Throw event. This is a field event in which a 16-pound metal sphere attached to a flexible handle is thrown for distance.

WHY? In their 13 year history at SMMS, the production team has worked with more than 1,000 students to bring you the most amazing performances where you'll say "I can't believe this is a middle school production!"

She is very excited to play the part of Mrs. Wormwood (and in the Big Kid Ensemble). Katie has been doing theatre for a very long time and loves being on stage. One of her favorite parts was playing the tattooed person for a summer production of The Greatest Showman. Big thanks to the cast and crew for making this show so special.

Eileen was in the original Matilda but that shut down due to Covid a week before showtime. Eileen and her fellow cast members are back and ready to perform. "Life isn't how to survive the storm, it's about how to dance in the rain."

She adores many actors and is inspired by them and hopes that being part of a school musical will help her become an influence to others like her idols.
