

APA Citation Format

The paper should be double-spaced with a margin of 1 inch on all sides. There is a separate title page. The pages are numbered in the top right corner preceded by a running head (a short version of the title). The title page is page 1, the title is centered in the middle of the page, the author's name and the name of the school/institution are centered on the two lines below the title. The paper may contain the following sections (not all sections will be required for all papers)

- Title page
- Abstract—not more than 120 words
- Introduction
- Method
- Results
- Discussion
- References
- Tables/figures
- Appendices

References are on a separate page entitled References, the title is centered on the top of the page and is not underlined. The first line of each entry is flush with the margin, subsequent lines are indented. Titles are italicized. References are alphabetized by the first word in each entry (usually the author's last name).

REMEMBER— each source you cite must appear in the Reference list; likewise each entry in the references must apply to a citation in your paper.
